MOBILE CRISIS INTERVENTION TEAM MEMBER

Thompson or Winnipeg Sub-Office

Full time (2 Positions)

Are you a Psychologist, Social Worker or Psychiatric Nurse who is seeking an opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of Indigenous people at times of crisis? Are you willing to travel to remote fly-in First Nation communities throughout Manitoba? If so, let's talk!

Your opportunity:

- You will be part of a Mobile Crisis Response team.
- You will work with others like yourself who are dedicated to work which has real value and meaning in the lives of others.
- You will apply your education, skills, talents, and passion for the benefit of others while learning from the expertise of your team.
- You will enjoy the satisfaction that comes from knowing your work is much more than just a job.

As a Mobile Crisis Intervention Team Member, you will:

- Provide culturally sensitive and safe crisis intervention and trauma support in the priority area of suicide or other tragic loss of life.
- Deploy to remote fly-in communities throughout Manitoba, usually up to three days and on short notice
- Provide an organized crisis response with support services to those impacted in the community.
- Work as part of a dedicated regional team
- Contribute to a broader strategy to strengthen relationships and provide greater capacity within First Nations communities to respond locally to crisis.

You bring:

- A Degree in psychology, social work, psychiatric nursing or health related post-secondary education.
- 3-5 years' experience working in a mental wellness crisis response environment
- Proficient computer skills
- A valid driver's license
- A sensitivity and understanding of culture, language and issues relevant to Indigenous communities
- Preference will be given to those who speak or understand an Indigenous language
- A willingness to travel
- A satisfactory background check
